Strength, Balance & Confidence

As I write this article, the Summer games of the Olympics will begin in Paris, France in a few weeks. The opening ceremony will be on July 24th right in the midst of our Obon celebrations. There are a multitude of sporting events held in the Summer Olympics including surfing, track and field, baseball, golf and soccer. One of the most popular of all the Olympic sports is gymnastics. I am in awe as I watch young men and women perform amazing physical feats on the parallel bars, the pommel horse, the rings and on the floor. One of the most remarkable events is the balance beam which is only performed by the women gymnasts. Each time I watch I am both thrilled and anxious as I worry for the safety of the athlete as they perform on a beam only 3.9 inches wide. The “salto” or the somersault is the scariest of the required moves on the beam. It takes great strength, balance and confidence to perform on the beam. The Olympic athletes possess something that makes them great, and that is confidence. There are many distractions as they perform, but they concentrate and focus on their routine.

The beam reminds me of Zendo-daishi’s analogy of the narrow white path traversing a river of fire on one side and a raging river of water on the other. That path in Zendo’s analogy is only three inches wide, and to navigate the path one needs strength, balance and confidence as well as faith. There are many distractions but with faith one can safely cross over to the other side. The major difference is for the gymnast it is their own ability, but for Zendo it is the power of Amida that allows us to navigate the narrow path. The Japanese term for faith is Shinjin 信心. Shinjin is sometimes referred to as awakening, it is an awakening to the great compassion of Amida Buddha. We must entrust in Amida and move forward and ultimately be embraced in the great compassion. It is at this point that the power of Amida takes us to the other shore of Enlightenment. Great Compassion has always been here with us enveloping our life with air, sun, water, food and all that sustains our life. Most of our time is living in distraction and we cannot see the Great Compassion and as a result we don’t feel or show gratitude.

Namu-amida-butsu is the sound of Great Compassion. No matter who we are, no matter what is occurring in our lives, whether living or dying, each of us is bound to the dynamic life that is Amida Buddha-Great Compassion. As we recite the name of the Buddha of Infinite Life and Light, Namu-amida-butsu, all beings in our present and past come alive and we are one. It is an affirmation that this life holds great significance and appreciation. This is what gives us the strength, balance and confidence in our lives.

It takes strength of conviction to entrust in Amida Buddha who calls to us to cross over, to come just as we are. It takes balance in our lives both spiritually and physically. Taking care of our bodies and our minds keeps us balanced and able to hear, see and experience the truth of life that Amida teaches us. It takes confidence knowing that we are embraced by the Buddha.

The Watsonville Buddhist Temple wishes to extend our condolences to the family of Gerald Kondo

President's Message

Dear Fellow Members

It's been a busy and productive few months, despite the inconvenience of the road closure in front of the temple. The pipe construction is scheduled to be completed on Bridge St. and Riverside by early August. The construction of the fence surrounding the temple started in June and it was just completed. A lock mailbox has been installed on the outside of the fence for any correspondence to be dropped off. The fence and the security cameras will keep the temple secure and safe from any unwanted visitors.

Kokoro no Gakko had their program the last week in June. The five day program which provides education to students in Japanese culture was very successful. Over 50 students from kindergarten to 6th grade participated in the program. In the one week session, students were exposed to Japanese language, crafts, foods, Ikebana, mochi making, songs, and Taiko.

We held our annual fireworks sales fundraiser from 7/1 to 7/4. Thank you to all our Sangha members who came out to help at the booth. A special thanks to Perry and Kim Yoshida for chairing the fundraiser.

Reverend Shinseki will be retiring from the BCA on July 31, 2024, but not from the Watsonville Buddhist Temple. He will become part time minister for our temple and Reverend Mukojima from Mountain View will become the Tri-Temple supervising minister. We are happy to have Reverend Shinseki for the next few years.

On Tuesday, 8/6/24, the Scouts led by Chris Garcia will be hosting the National Night Out in the main parking lot of the temple. Please drop by between 4:30 PM to 7:30 PM and say hello and enjoy the food, drinks, music and games.

The front and back parking areas will be repaved in August. The floods in 2023 damaged and altered the water flow to the streets. Reconstruction will begin on 8/19 and completed on 8/22.

We have restructured temple duties. Susan Ikegami will be handling administrative and financial responsibilities working closely with Norman Uyeda, the Treasurer of the temple. Sheryl Wobber will be responsible for the monthly Ichimi and JoAnn Kato will be handling the thank you correspondence. Please support our new team during this transition period,

Lastly, we lost a friend and valued member of our Sangha. Gerry Kondo was a past President and Chairperson for many events at the temple since the late 1970's. He will be greatly missed.

Gassho,

Kenny Kusumoto

Please note:

The front and back parking lots are scheduled to be repaved from August 19th to August 22nd. We are sorry for the inconvenience.

Also, a locked mailbox has been installed on the outside of the new fence in front of the hondo. You can still drop off any correspondence in the mail slot.

PAYING IT FORWARD

*Is there a better way to spend a Sunday,
Than a leisurely breakfast at a local cafe?
A thin layer of fog was still hovering around,
When we took to the road ~ headed for town.*

*The road we've traveled ~ time and again,
Carefully avoiding potholes around the bend.
While observing the berry fields along the way,
The tractors were silent on that Summer day.*

*When we finally reached our destination,
We instantly succumbed to the intoxication
Of the volcanic aroma of salsa and sage
That could send a sensitive spleen into a rage.*

*With little indication it would ever ease,
The cafe was buzzing like a swarm of bees.
With a swagger ~ we hopped atop the barstool,
Not an easy feat ~ being far from youthful.*

*At a nearby table were familiar faces,
Who graciously asked us to share their spaces.
So ~ gracefully sliding down from our stool,
We joined the two who were young and cool.*

*When it comes to mirth ~ age is not a factor,
As our chatter was jovial and full of laughter.
Even my pancakes ~ smothered with butter,
Caused my tastebuds to smile and flutter.*

*But here is the kicker ~ the crowning jewel.
Our waitress whispered "It's been Paid in Full!"
Such a nice gesture ~ touching our heart.
It was absolutely state-of-the-art.*

*Hanging high fives and a big "Thank You,"
Handshakes and warm hugs ~ we bid adieu.
Kindness is timeless ~ it never gets old.
"Paying it Forward" is my ultimate goal.*
